Intro - Trusted Data for Capital Markets Operations

Xceptor's strategy is grounded in staying true to solving a hard business problem:

- Data flows are disparate, often interrupted, issues and exceptions arise, visibility is lost, trust is broken
- Capital Markets challenges are amplified by regulation, volume (scale), complex instruments, real time transactions, global presence

Our opportunity is in the truths you can't stop hearing:

- Morgan Stanley – we need trusted data flows across the trade lifecycle = Ready to Trade, Settle, Report
- Citi – the consent order requires us to remediate manual processes and improve data governance
- Danske Bank – we need visibility of transaction status & risk across the trade life cycle
- Wells Fargo – we face constant pressure in operations to be more productive at a lower cost rate
- State Street – we need to transform our entire custody operations capabilities
- FE FundInfo – without you, we can't deliver the data to our clients, our business would stand still

Empowering Business Operations leaders (COOs) demands optimizing for Risk, Cost, Time, Market share.

Xceptor capital markets AI solutions ensure data can be trusted across the customer, trade and reporting lifecycle on an intelligent platform. We specialize in automating data flows and processes intelligently from start to finish.

Xceptor's vision: "Day in the Life" of a COO
